INTRODUCING SONYA PATERSON

Sonya Patterson, is a local contemporary artist who has graciously allowed us to print two of her painting in our directory this year, they are located on pages 121 and 126, one is titled "Tree of Colorful Life" and the other is titled "Autumn Sunrise".

Sonya takes delight in the challenge of blending color with the techniques of mixed media in acrylics, water-based paints and ink. Sonya states, "it is an ideal medium in which to capture intense color, light, movement and energy.

For many years Sonya has traveled nationwide showcasing and selling her art at prestigious art venues. Several years ago she decided to come home to Oklahoma and chose Yukon to open her own art gallery/custom frame shop, Moon River Studio, located south of Yukon where Garth Brooks becomes Cemetery Rd. (331 S Cemetery Rd)

Not only will you find the find original art by Sonya Patterson but paintings, pottery, bronzes and jewelry from not only well known Oklahoma artists but by well know artists from across America. Moon River also does custom picture framing and features every Tuesday evening water color classes taught by the famed Oklahoma landscape artist Dwane Taylor.
